

Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 3, 1901.

LOCAL MATTERS.

For this time tomorrow at 5.41 a. m. and on at 6.28 p. m. High water at 5.00 a. m. and 8.18 p. m.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight and Thursday; brisk to high westerly winds tomorrow.

EASTER MUSIC—Easter, with all its triumphant joy to the Christian world, will come Sunday. The gloom of Lent, culminating in the commemoration of the crucifixion on Good Friday, gives way to the joy of the resurrection and music, lights and flowers will tell the story of the triumph over death. The Gazette, in accordance with its annual custom, publishes today the programmes of music to be sung in the churches at the Easter services.

Christ Church.—Processional hymn, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," Bodine; "Christ Our Passover," Williams; Gloria Patri, festival, Barrett; Te Deum, festival air from Wagner, Holden; hymn No. 116, Roper; Gloria Tibi, Wicks; hymn No. 121, "Victory," Palestrina; Offertory, "Christ Has Won the Victory," Wiegand; sentence, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow, Sanctus; communion service; Sanctus, Garrett; hymn No. 225, Hodges; Gloria in Excelsis, old chant. Evening service: Processional, "Christ has Won the Victory," Wiegand; Gloria Patri, Nos. 1 and 2, Williams and Barrett; Magnificat, Sheppard, Nunc Dimittis, Sheppard, Hymn No. 115, Martin; Offertory, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," Bodine; sentence, "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," hymn No. 388, Powell.

St. Paul's Church.—Processional hymn, No. 109, "Welcome Happy Morning," Sullivan; anthem, "Christ Our Passover," Schilling; Gloria Patri in F, Schaefer; Te Deum in E minor, Schaefer; Jubilate in E flat, Corbin; offertory hymn, No. 111, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today," Johnson; Kyrie in A, Elvey; Gloria in F, Hodges; hymn No. 122, "Jesus Lives," Offertory anthem, "Now On the First Day," Warren; Offertory inscription, "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow," Sanctus in F, Tour; Eucharistic hymn, No. 225, "Bread of the World," Hodges; Gloria in Excelsis, old chant.

St. Mary's Church.—Morning service: Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus and Agnus Dei, Millard. Evening service: Vespers, Lejaal; Magnificat, Emerig Ave Verum, O Salutaris, Tantum Ergo and Gregorian psalm.

Grace Church.—There will be a selected musical programme, including two new anthems. At 6.30 a. m. the first holy communion will contain the choicest musical features of the day's celebration. Full morning prayer and holy communion will be rendered at 11 a. m., while at 7.30 p. m. full choral evening prayer will be rendered. Mr. H. B. Ramsey, organist, will be supported by the regular choir.

St. Mary's Church.—Morning service: Kyrie, Gloria, Credo, Sanctus and Agnus Dei, Millard. Evening service: Vespers, Lejaal; Magnificat, Emerig Ave Verum, O Salutaris, Tantum Ergo and Gregorian psalm.

Rain.—This city and vicinity were visited last night by a cold northeast wind and rain, which lasted till well into this morning. Rain commenced falling about 6 o'clock yesterday evening and continued without intermission till this morning and occasional light showers fell later. The streets were well washed. The tide in the river was made high by the wind and the water came up awash with some of the wharves and flooded the lower end of King street. In the surrounding country the runs were made very high and the roads muddy. So far as known no damage was done.

PERSONAL.—Mr. and Mrs. James T. Anthony have sent out announcement cards for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Nettie May Anthony, to Mr. Frank Tolson English, formerly of this city. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents at Riverside Park, near Chestertown, Md., at noon Wednesday, April 17.

Opera House.—Martin's Uncle Tom's Cabin company will appear at the Opera House tomorrow night. All the old features that have made the play popular in the past are retained, and several new ones introduced. This company has not fallen into the error of having more than one top, or a multiplicity of Marks, but is content with one of each, and they are good ones. A big street parade will start from the theatre at noon.

Death of a Venerable Lady.—Mrs. Mary J. Atwell, widow of William E. Atwell, died at her home, 117 Duke street, at two o'clock this morning. The deceased was in the 85th year of her age. Her husband, who had also been aged, died two years ago. Mrs. Atwell's funeral will take place from the M. E. Church South on Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Committee on Light.—The committee on light met last night and elected Mr. J. F. Hepburn engineer of the electric light system and Mr. W. M. Glasgow fireman. A number of new street lamps were ordered to replace old ones that have become unfit for use and a supply of carbons was also ordered.

Stops the Cough and Works on the Cold. Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price 25 cents.

Those famous little pills, DeWitt's Little Early Risers will remove all impurities from your system, cleanse your bowels, make them regular.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.—The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held in the Camp Hall yesterday afternoon. Business of interest and importance was discussed. Other routine business was transacted and it was decided to have the next meeting at night, when it is expected a very interesting paper will be read.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure a Cough or Cold at once. Conquers Croup, Whooping Cough and Measles Cough without fail. Best for Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Grippe, Pneumonia, Consumption and Lung Affections. Gives quick, sure results. Price 25c. Sold by Richard Gibson and all druggists.

The Best Blood Purifier. The blood is constantly being purified by the lungs, liver and kidneys. Keep these organs in a healthy condition and the bowels regular and you will have no need of a blood purifier. For this purpose there is nothing purer than Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, one dose of them will do you more good than a dollar bottle of the best blood purifier. Price 25 cents. Samples free at Richard Gibson's drug store.

LOCAL BREVITIES. During the season the Concordia will serve clam soup to its patrons, and the bowl sent to this office today was really fine.

On account of the conference being in session in Rossmore, there will be no services at the M. E. Church South, in this city, on Sunday.

In the Corporation Court today Mrs. Margaret Barnett was appointed administratrix of the estate of her husband, the late William Barnett, who was recently killed by a train at the Southern Railway depot in this city.

Rev. Caleb B. Stetson, of the clergy staff of St. Mark's Pro-Cathedral, Washington, will preach the sermon at Grace Church tonight. This is the last of the special series of Lenten sermons at this church. The members of other churches are cordially invited.

At the meeting of the Macabees last night an invitation from Mount Vernon Tent to attend a banquet was accepted. Sir Knight Rickenbecker was present and addressed the order on its healthy growth. Two candidates were initiated and two applications were received.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Hydration Fire Engine Company, held last night, Raymond Smith was recommended to the Fire Warden for driver of the hose wagon, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of J. W. Keil. Correspondence business of a routine nature was disposed of.

The annual meeting of the members of the Old Dominion Boat Club will be held tonight. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year, and applications pending for membership will be acted upon. Routine business will also come up for consideration.

Mr. Harry A. Downham will at an early date remodel his residence on Princess street. He proposes putting in a handsome bay window and will make other modern improvements. Mr. Charles Churchman, Jr., is the contractor for the work.

The Lenten sermon at St. Mary's Catholic Church last night was delivered by Rev. Father Terney, of Falls Church, before a large congregation. This is the last Lenten sermon that will be preached in that church this year.

A number of Washington stock brokerage houses are embarking in the enterprise of Arlington and Co. of New York, who have been their New York correspondents, and yesterday closed their place.

The only case in the Police Court this morning was that of two white boys charged with assault on a colored woman. One was fined $2.50 and the other was dismissed.

The Feast of the Passover, one of the principal feasts of the Jewish year, will begin this evening with sundown. The day will be observed by the Israelites of this city.

Tomorrow will be Holy Thursday, a day of great devotion in Catholic and Episcopal churches. Services will be held in this city according to previous announcement.

Henry Pierson, colored, was arrested today by Officer Smith for assaulting and attempting to shoot Sam Murray, also colored, near the Millard depot.

A lower Fairfax county man, found lying in the street prostrated by liquor, was taken to the station house this evening.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Charles Thornton and Rosa L. Lewis, both of Herndon.

The schooner Childs Haro, loaded with ice, arrived today to W. M. Beardon, from Rockport, Me.

There were nine lodgers at the station house last night.

The water mains will be flushed tomorrow at 1 o'clock.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Servian Cabinet has resigned after a life of about two months. Li Hung Chang, with his body guard, has returned to Shanghai indisposed.

It is reported that an attempt was recently made to assassinate the Russian minister of the interior.

The Gauss, a ship to take part in a south polar expedition, was launched at Kiel, Germany, yesterday.

German troops have defeated a thousand Chinese robbers north of Tientsin, killing 11 and wounding 50.

The strike of 35,000 Lanarkshire miners and engineers is causing iron and steel mills in Scotland to shut down.

Japan has given China written assurances that she will share the consequences of refusing the Manchurian treaty.

Collisions between the Chinese and the French and German troops on the border of Shan Si province are of almost daily occurrence.

The centennial of the naval battle fought off Copenhagen between the English and Danes was celebrated in Copenhagen yesterday.

Prince Asumare, president of the Japanese House of Peers, in a speech declared that in the event of war with Russia, Japan could count upon the friendly neutrality of Great Britain and Germany.

The foreign generals are agreed that the Chinese forts at Taku, Shan Hai Kuan and Tientsin must be rendered useless, and the north fort at the entrance to the Taku river must be entirely destroyed.

Frederick Rutherford Harris, the confidential agent of Cecil Rhodes, was understood as a member of the House of Commons yesterday on the charge of publishing false statements regarding his opponent for election to Parliament.

Pearls Found in Vermont. Everyone is talking about the "Green Mountain Pearls." Did you know that they cure liver troubles, constipation, bad digestion, nausea, dull headache, dizziness and foul breath? There never was a pill sold which acted so quickly and gently, and they don't gripe one bit. A trial is all we ask—we know what the result will be.

WARFIELD & HALL. You cannot enjoy perfect health, rosy cheeks, and sparkling eyes if your liver is sluggish and your bowels clogged. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cleanse the whole system of a routine nature was disposed of.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL. New York, April 3.—After an irregular opening the stock market almost immediately developed renewed strength. The general railway list was strong. In government bonds the new four's were up 1/4 per cent.
